

Kahleen M Crawford

Senior Contract Consultant

“Years of experience dealing with contractual disputes in the building industry have impressed upon me the need to attempt to resolve disputes, whether by negotiation, mediation or adjudication, before they impact detrimentally upon the financial standing of companies”

Relevant Expertise

- Over 35 years experience in the Construction Industry with own Consultative QS Practice since 1978 providing advice to Employers, Main Contractors and Sub-contractors on contractual issues. Kahleen’s experience of working for a Contracting Organisation complements the Private Practice Experience of the rest of the CDR team - joined the team permanently in January 2003.
- Advising on Strategic Adjudication. Considerable experience in the preparation of submissions in adjudication and acting as a Party representative.
- Negotiation and Facilitative Negotiation skills – assisting Contractors and Sub-Contractors and Employers resolve contentious matters.
- An accredited and practising Mediator in commercial and civil matters. Currently on the Committee of the Scottish Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators as the Medication Convenor.
- Over 30 years experience in Corporate Recovery – responsible for developing this area within CDR, building on experience in working with Banks and other institutions in building related turnaround cases. Considerable experience in building related insolvency.
- Expert Witness appointments in relation to Quantum and Professional Negligence Claims.
