

Lisa H Cattanach

Director

“I originally qualified as a Quantity Surveyor, and, over the years, became increasingly interested in the contractual aspect of projects. In 2000, the opportunity arose for me to develop this interest and I joined CDR. I have since developed my expertise in Dispute Resolution and currently receive appointments as Adjudicator, Party representative in adjudication and Expert Witness.”

Relevant Expertise

- Qualified as Chartered Quantity Surveyor in 1996.
- Attained Fellowship of Chartered Institute of Arbitrators in 2008.
- In 2010 complete an LLM in Construction Law and Arbitration at The Robert Gordon University which included a dissertation entitled “Impact of case law upon the Adjudication process”.
- Practising Adjudicator - Registered with the RICS in Scotland and Confederation of Construction Specialists.
- Expert Witness appointments in relation to quantum, loss and expense, value and validity of variations in Final Account.
- Providing contractual advice to Employers, Main Contractors and Sub-contractors on Standard Forms and bespoke Contracts.
- Preparing submissions for Adjudications and Representing Parties in Adjudication.
- Provision of traditional quantity surveying services.
- Worked as a Managing Surveyor with Unick Surveyors for six years on a variety of major projects throughout the UK - providing cost, programme and contractual advice to various blue-chip companies throughout UK, Europe, USA, South America and the Far East.

CDR

Pavilion 1, 291 Springhill Parkway, Parkway Court
Glasgow Business Park G69 6GA

www.cdr.uk.com

Tel 0141 773 3377 Fax 0141 773 3311 Email info@cdr.uk.com